ANOTHER FIRE PREVENTION WEEK

As a means of preventing deaths from fire the State Fire Department suggests the following Safety Rules in dealing with fire and the things that promote it:

(1) Gas heaters, wood stoves and open fireplaces: Place a screen guard about stoves of all kind used for heating purposes and in front of open fireplace to prevent small children, men and women from getting too close to either and setting their clothes afire.

(2) Gasoline: Treat gasoline the same as you do dynamite and small-pox; that is, have as little to do with gasoline as possible. People respect dynamite and smallpox because they FEAR them, but do not FEAR GASOLINE, but it is much more dangerous for that reason. Gasoline should NEVER enter the home only in case of dire necessity. Never use gasoline, naphtha or benzene for cleaning clothes or anything else in the home. If it just must be used go out into the open air and then avoid getting your clothes saturated with it and going back into the house near a fire. Always keep gasoline and fire separate and apart. They will not mix. Never try to start a fire with gasoline because it is an explosive liquid. Gasoline heaters are dangerous, respect them.

(3) Kerosene: Never try to start a fire with or quicken a fire with kerosene oil. Use metal lamps, not glass lamps. Use the best quality of kerosene, it is safer. Keep lamp burner clean; fill the lamp by daylight only. Keep lamp where it will not be easily turned over, and do not set close to curtain or anything that will catch fire. Do not leave house with lamp burning. Be sure oil heaters do not leak and will not overturn. Keep oil heaters clean and do not turn flames too high. Always be careful in using kerosene in lamps and heaters.

(4) Gas: Use approved gas stoves and appliances, and remember rubber hose is dangerous because it will wear out and leak, or can be knocked loose from stove or gas connection at wall. Never leave gas stoves burning when you are gone from home. Always ventilate with fresh air. Keep gas heaters away from curtains and walls.

(5) Matches: Keep matches out of the way of children, and do not permit children to play with them. Children can be taught the dangers of fire.

(6) Trapped in Dwellings: Know your own home and how you would escape from it in the event you should be forced to do so. Never nail window screens. Do not jump from window except as a last resort. It is better to tear a sheet into strips, tie the strips together into a rope, fasten one end of the rope securely and slide to the ground. A rope is better than a sheet if one is available. Always keep cool and use your head.

MRS. CLINTON MEEKS DIED IN PAMPA

Mrs. Clinton Meek, who before her marriage was Miss Ruth Proctor of Hamlin, passed away at a hospital in Pampa, Texas, Sunday morning at 12:40, following a major operation and pneumonia.

Ruth Evelyn Proctor, was born in Buffalo Gap Texas, September 15 1907, and was 32 years and fifteen days of age. She is mourned by her husband, Clinton Meek, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. O. The body was brought to Hamlin for the funeral and burial. Services were conducted at the Methodist Church, Monday afternoon by the pastor, Rev. Hanks, and interment was in East Cemetery by the Barrow Company.

Besides the large number of saddened friends of Hamlin a number of friends and relatives from other points were present for the funeral. HASKELL BOOSTERS COMING TO EAT DINNER IN HAMLIN

It is a week from this Friday, in fact, October 13, which is Friday, too, the Haskell Boosters for their fall fair will make Hamlin by noon, and that means the fellows must eat. That is what happened one year ago. The Band at that time did well down at the Morgan Hotel and the others scattered over town and all went away full up.

This little news item is just a warning that the Haskell-ites are going to be here, and that is that.

Rev. J. H. Whitaker of Vernon was here Monday and Tuesday meeting old friends. He was formerly pastor of the Hamlin Nazarene Church. He has been pastor of a church in Oklahoma City, where he built another new church building.

Tate May, accompanied by Theo Johnson went to Dallas Sunday to be with his sister, Mrs. Frank Johnson who was very ill. At this time she is reported to be much improved.

GENERAL SCHOOL ITEMS OF THE WEEK

THE SCHOOL TAXES are beginning to come in nicely. Collections are beginning a month early this year, due to the fact the Hamlin School Board decided to pass to the taxpayers the advantage of a three per cent discount on their taxes if paid during the month of October. Only 1939 taxes will be affected. Taxpayers who pay their 1939 taxes in November will be allowed a 2 per cent discount, and those waiting to pay in December will be given the advantage of a 1 per cent discount.

THE HOMEMAKING DEPARTMENT has made many improvements in their department, chief among which is the refinishing of the floors. The girls of that department under the direction of Miss Smyers moved all of their cabinets and tables and did the work on the floors themselves. They are quite proud of the appearance of their department and will welcome any guest who might care to visit them.

In addition to the Homemaking departments floors the other wooden floors of the high school building have been treated with a special preparation to keep down dust and to prevent spread of certain diseases. The floors of the Elementary school building have all been freshly oiled and are dust free.

THE HAMLIN PIED PIPERS, the high school pep squad, the public school band, the coaches, and the administration wish to thank the patrons of the school and the football fans of this district for their fine support and attendance at our two home games of which we opened the season this year. We were well pleased with the attendance, the fine sportsmanship, and the splendid behavior on the part of the players and fans at these two games. We are striving to improve the park, and will sprinkle the side lines and outside the park as we did preparing for our last game, and will have it as near dust free as possible.

THIS WEEK the Pied Pipers will take on the Jayton team which will be our last practice game before conference competition begins. We will welcome you to our game Friday, October 6, beginning at 8:00 o'clock, and will promise you a fast hard fought and clean exhibition.

PIONEER'S PORTRAIT HONORS REV. YOUNG

For the past two or three years it has become known in Texas State University circles that there is yet one last survivor of those who had something to do with the great institution's first years of operations . . . it is Rev. J. A. Young, now residing west of Hamlin in Fisher County.

The historical facts concerning his duties there when he was but a boy of a little past twenty, while his associates were men more than middle age, makes interesting reading. Several months ago, in fact before the late President Benedict passed away, Rev. Young made a visit to the University after an absence of more than fifty years, and it was then that a revival of past history took place.

Some time ago Rev. Young made a radio talk over the Abilene station and his picture appeared in the paper. An artist, Miss Parish of that city persuaded Rev. Young to let her make a life-sized painting. It was some months till permission was granted for the work to be done. It was finished a few weeks ago and this wonderful likeness of Rev. Young now hangs in the offices of the Farmers & Merchants National Bank. It is exceedingly good, to the minutest details. Friends of Rev. Young will likely want to see this portrait before it is carried away, and it will be a pleasure to see this good piece of painting while at the bank.

Perhaps within the next two or three weeks, this portrait will be sent to the State University where it will be received and hung along beside of some of the great educators of this state. It will be treasured for several reasons, and the historical archives of that institution will record the life and especially the duties that this fine old gentleman performed in his early twenties back there 53 years ago.

Dr. and Mrs. Don Gould visited this week-end in Walters, Okla., in the home of Mrs. Gould's parents, Dr. and Mrs. G. W. Baker. Mrs. Gould spent most of her life in Walters, where she taught school for several years. She visited with many of her old friends and relatives there.

Mrs. M. P. May visited her niece, Mrs. Cecile Saxon and Mrs. Deliah McIntosh and Mrs. Tate May, in Abilene last week.

Milton Tansey, of Mineral Wells, was here Sunday and Monday visiting old friends. The Tansey family, one of the early pioneer families of Hamlin moved to Beaumont several years ago. Milton is now connected with the Baker Hotel in Mineral Wells.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Johnson, near McCaulley, are moving to Fort Worth to live.

Hard Fighting Pipers Win Second Game

Abilene "B" Team Downed By Score 26 to 7

Playing the second game of the season, Hamlin Pied Pipers hung up victory No. 2 last Friday night, triumphing over Abilene's "B" team. The first win was from Lueders one week previous, 13 to 0.

Many times throughout the game the large number of Hamlin spectators were brought to their feet by Pied Piper line plunges and sweeping plays which netted large gains.

An inexperienced team, many of the squad members playing the second game of their lives, played like veterans throughout the sixty minute contest. Only a few better men from last year's team bolster the ranks, but Coach Smith and his assistants have molded a smooth working machine with a promising future.

Picking outstanding players was difficult since the entire team worked with precision and as a single unit. Johnson, cooler and more deliberate than in the previous game, proved to be a consistent yard gainer, completing passes to every angle of the field, and hurling one for the first touchdown, and point afterward. Sowell, big left end, was on the receiving end of many of Johnson's passes, and turned in a whale of a game wrecking offensive plays on his side of the line. Nicholson, playing in quarterback position, had no trouble detecting weaknesses in the opponent's defense and successfully directed plays where they would prove most effective. Ellison turned in the star tackle of the evening following a Hamlin punt, when he gathered an armful of Abilene shoe strings and left the opponents with their backs to the goal posts.

Ivy, full back, was in on every play and is no slouch at totin' the ball. Kelly and Barton opened the line on Hamlin offense and in turn kept it from gaping when the ball changed hands. Two good players, who hold their posts down well.

Barrow, tackle, had a habit of being in the opponents' way on most of their offensive moves, and stopped many plays at the scrimmage line.

Lasseter is very light but he fills a big place in the center of the line, with credit to the team and himself.

Walton patrols the right end of the line and covers the territory well. Dean, running mate to Johnson, seems always in the right place at the right time and does his share of totin' the pill.

The reserves are made up of good men who haven't had the opportunity to strut their stuff much yet, but will be given the chance to do so before the season is finished.

Friday (tonight's) game is with the Jayton organization on the new Pipers' lighted field, beginning at 8:00 o'clock. Lueders held Jayton to a tie last Friday.

Home-makers Making News In Hamlin's High School

Our first year homemaking classes have been studying personality development, self-improvement, personal grooming. We are trying to improve our manners, and our appearance. Last week we were given a demonstration on how to care for our nails, by Mrs. Homer Raney, from the Weinke Beauty Salon, we try to put into practice what we learn. Now we are making aprons out of white material. This problem has helped us learn to use our sewing equipment and our machines. Sewing a straight seam is not always easy for beginners, we have learned.

In second year homemaking we have studied kitchens and meal service units, including floors, study of equipment, floor coverings, china, silver and all phases of both rooms and the things that make them most convenient and livable.

We have also cleaned the department and put two coats of varnish on the floors. This was a big job, as we had to move all the furniture out of each room; and we managed to complete this job by doing a room at a time.

One of our big goals for the year is to make our department more attractive by adding a few pictures, making rugs for our living room and curtains for our foods laboratory. We have a new hanging for the clothing laboratory that is an old-fashioned girl design on plain duck and painted with crayolas. We also have a yard of pongee that we stenciled a spinning wheel on, and we plan to line it and hang it over our divan. Both were very inexpensive and are attractive.

Each day we plan new projects, and our home projects are a problem now as we are trying to get them planned and the work started.

We are about to forget to tell you our new instructor in Home-making is Miss Camille Smyers, and under her leadership we are learning a lot of new ideas in this important department.

SOMETHING TO THINK ABOUT

—This week there has been too much said to leave anything to think about. Congress has the floor . . . making campaign thunder to be turned on the suffering public in the 1940 campaigns.

—It is a bit puzzling why so-called smart men can disagree so radically on so simple a subject. It would lead one to think that somebody is trying to favor somebody, to please somebody or to protect somebody.

—Old England and Old France and especially Old Hitler are taking down every word that is uttered out loud up there in Washington. The quicker the congress does what everybody expects them to do—repeal the embargo act—pass a "you come get it and pay or promise to pay for it" law, the better the people will like it.

—And talking about 90 days credit, or any number of days credit . . . it appears that it is purely Americanism to allow a fellow to sell to anybody anything on any terms on his own responsibility, and stand flat-footed and tell anybody who does not like it to go jump . . .

—If Uncle Sam tells a factory outfit that it is risky to sell on time and that concern goes ahead and sells, whose look-out is it? Nobody will kick as long as the goods are going to the nations that American people want to win. Better let's give them all they want than to have to take it to them and help fight off an enemy that would inevitably come to our own shores with all kinds of inhuman implements.

—But there are a few in congress (both parties) who must make a showing for their voters back home, and we expect a month or two of jabber about the horribleness of war, how to keep out and how to get into it. Only one line of argument can be correct . . . in the meantime the mystery gets deeper and the danger becomes greater, and that is something to think about.

COMPLETE STATE FAIR IS ASSURED VISITORS

DALLAS, Oct. 4—A complete State Fair—more than that—a complete Southwestern Exposition, will greet the million visitors expected by the State Fair of Texas, Oct. 7 to 22.

As the opening date drew near officials announced that all exhibits were in place, livestock barns were overflowing, agricultural showings had been set, the free sets had arrived, the star production of Follies Bergere was set up the Holy Land was in place, and the 55-car Rubin & Cherry midway was ready for the opening gong.

The State Fair this year will present more of an educational nature than ever before, and yet it has in no sense overlooked the amusement

For the first time it presents the National Hereford Show. For the first time it presents a complete chemurgic exhibit, and a showing of soil-less cultivation of vegetables and plants.

It has the best show in its history—and more free ones, including aerial acts, performing lions and elephants, Ferdinand, the educated bull, and others.

More than 140 special days have been arranged, including a day devoted to Safety, sponsored by the Texas Safety Council on Oct. 17. Opening Day is Press Day, Future Farmers Day, Texas Chamber of Commerce Managers Day and many others.

An attendance of more than 100,000 is indicated opening day. Fifty thousand opening day keys have been sold.

ATHENIA VICTIMS TALKED TO LIONS

Submarine warfare was brought home to Hamlin people, Tuesday, at the Lions Club luncheon.

Two of the passengers on the ill fated Athenia ship which was torpedoed a few hours after England declared war on Germany, were invited guests of the Lions Club, Tuesday . . . Miss Constance Bridge and her brother Harry Bridge of Abilene, who with their mother were returning home on the Athenia when their ship was struck. These two young people gave vivid stories of what happened about dusk that evening as the Athenia ploughed its way westward from England, and at about 200 miles out a terrible crash came.

The Bridge family are English, but have lived in America for some time and have become citizens of this nation. Mr. Bridge is in the employ of the National Red Cross. The mother and two children had spent the summer in England with her mother and because of the war they were getting out as soon as possible . . . to a country where air-raid scares and gas masks are not known.

Miss Bridge spoke first Tuesday and in her characteristic English way of speaking attracted close attention. She testified how composed she was at the time of the explosion, how she rushed to get her life-saving belt, how dark it was and how she secured a flashlight, got their belts and hastened on deck. People were let down by rope ladders and just as Mrs. Bridge was coming down, the boat pulled away and thus the mother and son were left on the ship and the daughter was in a life boat. Later another boat took off the mother and son and for hours neither of them knew where the others were. The story is too long to re-tell in detail. The young man in his talk evidenced much unassuming wit in telling how he was pitched three feet off deck and crashed down, how the ship tilted, how he drifted for 14 hours with both feet in the water, crowded into a boat with 115 that was built for only 85, how they were picked up by an English destroyer, how fast they chased after a sub. Young Bridge is a school boy in his most bashful age and he said really he was never scared so badly by the submarine attack as he was trying to make a speech. This young man says the impression in England is that they personally feel that it is a personal duty to help put Hitlerism out of business. Miss Bridge and her brother also spoke at the High School.

Confidence in another man's virtue is no slight evidence of a man's own.—Montague.

ABOUT JONES COUNTY FOLKS

Mr. and Mrs. Willie McCoy, whose family numbers eight persons, are one Jones County family who will not have to worry about the HC of L. At least not for this coming year.

Living on a farm they set a goal for this year of fencing a garden 150 by 150 feet and pipe water to it; can 800 quarts of vegetables and fruits.

Their accomplishments along this line for the first nine months of the year are 711 quarts of vegetables and fruits canned, their 150 by 150 foot garden fenced and piped for water. (they spent $10 for wire and $12 for garden seed) Mrs. McCoy says that by the end of the year they will have exceeded their canning quota as set up at the start of the year.

In addition to their 711 quarts already canned they have one calf to can and six hogs for their meat and lard. They also have on hand home grown corn meal in sufficient quantities for six months. They figure that their garden has produced 1,540 pounds of vegetables valued at approximately $77.00.

There were 100 guests present last Friday on the L. H. Culwell farm northeast of Anson, for the FSA field day demonstration. Several speakers were on the program explaining different phases of the FSA plan of better life and several families explained their program of "living at home." Basket lunch was served picnic style at noon.

Several from the county attended the Fisher County Jack and and Stallion show at Rotan, Friday.

WINTER'S DASTARD 90 HOURS

skipped by OIL-PLATING your engine today

Can you figure on your car's Daily Winter Starting Schedule being any briefer than this?...

|-------------|-------------------------|
| No. 1 Start | * GOING TO WORK |
| No. 2 Start | * GOING TO LUNCH |
| No. 3 Start | * RETURNING FROM LUNCH |
| No. 4 Start | * GOING HOME FROM WORK |
| No. 5 Start | * GOING TO THE MOVIE |
| No. 6 Start | * GOING HOME FROM MOVIE |

Could half-a-dozen starts or so get you through a day? Will your icy engine turn lukewarm in only 5 or 6 minutes? Even so, just think what that comes to, all through these bad months! . . . Total: 90 hours!

90 tough hours—and often more. A whole 90 hours when oiling that comes from "fast flow" alone lags far behind the sure lubrication that comes from changing today to OIL-PLATING.

OIL-PLATING is ready to lubricate sooner than any oil ever can flow—sooner than "instantly!"—because patented Conoco Germ Processed oil forces OIL-PLATING into a durable bond with the engine parts. OIL-PLATING becomes part of the parts!

They can't drain dry of OIL-PLATING. They remain "bathed in slippiness" all day, all night, in all weather, even with your car at a standstill. That's why OIL-PLATING lets your engine slide into swift, safe, dragless action, instead of letting it suffer Winter's worst 90 hours—along with your battery. Slash starting time; stretch your time between quarts to the limit, by changing to Your Mileage Merchant's Conoco station today for your right Winter Germ Processed oil. That's your way to Winter OIL-PLATING. Continental Oil Company

Hog Killing Time Coming

This Apricultural picture might be a Hamlin scene

Raising a family's meat on a Jones County farm is not so hard except that on drouth years, local feeds are not possible. The old-timer rancher usually had plenty of steak and roast beef, but he did not often pay much attention to "hog meats." The passing of the grass age brought in the better grade of hogs and the picture above represents one of the choice breeds in West Texas.

Hogs on the average farm should not be an expensive enterprise. Usually there is enough waste feeds or materials of food values to keep a few hogs about a place . . . meat produced on the farm "accidentally" means that much more money saved for something else. There is nothing better in the winter and spring than a few choice hams, well cured. They make mighty good eating, and think of that "frog-eye" gravy and hot biscuits! That is a good way to fix home life in a boys mind, to last throughout his old age.

Well, you have the Herald's picture series No. 9 . . . they may or may not be of intrest to anyone, but to our mind they represent the way this part of the state transformed from the cattle country to what we have now. It may be that we spoiled West Texas when we plowed up the grass, but that is a debatable question.

BOYD CHAPEL OIL WELL A REALITY

The Herald may get a licking for calling the new oil well on the Rodgers farm, southwest of Neinda, and northwest of Boyd Chapel, as a "Boyd Chapel Well" . . . you see we are expecting other wells in that section and to compromise, we shall later refer to that oil field at the "Neinda-Boyd Chapel Pool." It is a pool OK, for when two wells have been dug on the same farm, and both with oil, why not say "pool."

The new oil production on the Rodgers farm is credited to R. R. Carroll, who is doing the work. The well that is now on the pump and making about 50 barrels, is really No. 2. The first one is not far from the last location and it produced some oil but from some cause they lost the production.

Let us reason this way: By moving a little north and east of the first well, a paying well has been found. Now we may expect another location farther in that direction, and maybe oil will be the result. The producer was drilled to 2800 feet, not so bad, and likely as they move south (towards Neinda the depth will be less as the trend of elevation lowers toward Hamlin, however, nobody can tell how the area lies way down there around 3,000 feet.

It will pay to keep an eye on the Neinda-Boyd Chapel section . . . there is plenty of acreage to draw from.

"The Spirit of '76"

IT STARTED out as a humorous sketch and it ended up as one of the most famous of all American paintings. That is the story of the patriotic picture, "The Spirit of '76." The story of the painter is equally interesting.

Archibald Willard, while serving as a soldier in the Union army, often amused himself by making sketches of army life to send back home. After the war he painted a huge panorama of war scenes which he began exhibiting. But people wanted to forget about the war and his venture was a failure. So he went back to his home in Wellington, Ohio, and got a job with a wagonmaker, painting decorations on the wagons.

Willard also continued making sketches and one came to the attention of James F. Ryder, a Cleveland photographer and art dealer. He encouraged Willard, made chromos from several of his pictures and from their sale Willard was able to study art in New York.

In 1876, the year of the Philadelphia Centennial, Ryder suggested that Willard draw a picture appropriate to the celebration. So the artist set to work on a humorous picture showing three rural musicians at a fourth of July celebration and depicting the two drummers as having imbibed too freely in honor of the occasion.

Then his father, who was the original of the middle figure, the tall drummer, fell ill and it was apparent that he would not live long. Willard reproached himself for having his father a figure in a comic picture of that character and the idea of "The Spirit of '76" was born in his mind. He worked furiously in the daytime to complete the picture and at night sat by the side of his father. But the elder Willard did not live to see the finished product nor to learn how he was to be immortalized as the white-haired patriot in his son's great picture.

Ryder made reproductions which were sold at the centennial in Philadelphia and they attracted so much attention that officials of the exposition sent for the original. During the time it was on exhibition there were always crowds gathered in front of it. Since that time reproductions of it have been sold by the hundreds of thousands. Willard painted many other pictures before his death in 1918 but none of them ever became so famous as "The Spirit of '76."

HAMLIN F.F.A. SEE WEST TEXAS FAIR

Twenty-five members of the Hamlin Future Farmers of America attended the West Texas Fair at Abilene, Tuesday night, October 3.

The Members went through the Agricultural Building and inspected the exhibits of the F. F. A. and 4-H clubs. One of the exhibits was a display of rope and leather work by the Hamlin Chapter. This exhibit won a blue ribbon and carries a prize of $10.00 which the local club will receive.

Other points of interest inspected were the hog barn, dairy barn, cattle barn and horse barn. Some of the outstanding livestock of the state were exhibited in these buildings.

The animals that attracted the most attention were the beautiful Palamino horses. There were two hundred and fifty or more of these horses. All members enjoyed the trip very much and their views on agricultural exhibits were greatly enlightened.

Texan Wins Movie Lead

Six years ago a 17-year-old girl walked into the offices of the dramatics department of Texas State College for Women and announced her intentions of becoming a movie actress. Her name is Ardis Ankerson; her home town San Antonio. In a few weeks Warner Brothers will release "Espionage Agent." The female lead will be played by Brenda Marshall, the Ardis Ankerson who has insisted that she would be a movie actress since she was eight years old. Joel McCrea will play opposite her. In college Miss Ankerson was permitted to take advanced dramatics courses which she was yet an underclassman, and she was the only underclassman ever admitted to the College Little Theater.

Prompt Help For A Listless Child

Scolding won't help a boy or girl who is listless, dull or cross from constipation. But, here's something that will!

If sluggish bowels have your child headachy, bilious, upset, give him a little Syrup of Black-Draught tonight. Like the original famed BLACK-DRAUGHT, its principal ingredient is an intestinal tonic-laxative. Helps impart tone to the bowel muscles.

Children like the taste of Syrup of Black-Draught. It is an all vegetable product. When simple directions are followed, its action is gentle, but prompt and complete. Comes in two sizes: 50c and 25c.

THE NYA WORK GROWS IN SCOPE

W. Baxter, NYA Area Supervisor announced that word had been received from Mr. J. C. Kellam, State Youth Administrator, authorizing increased wages and hours for NYA workers throughout the State of Texas. The change will become effective with pay rolls beginning in October and will immediately affect some 14,000 NYA workers in the state including about 120 workers in Jones county.

Mr. Kellam's advice stated that the increase of approximately $2.00 per month, or an increase of 16 per cent over the wages now in effect, would mean not only more pay for the needy young people working on NYA projects, but pointed out that the increased number of hours youths will be permitted to work will aid their chances of securing private employment as a result of work experience and training they gain on NYA projects. Mr. Kellam explained that a member of a family whose income is insufficient to provide the needs of all members of the family, regardless of whether the family is receiving any form of public assistance, or a youth without family connections who is in need, is eligible for certification to NYA. All referrals and certifications to NYA are now made through the offices of the Texas Department of Public Welfare, the Farm Security Administration and the Texas Old Age Assistance.

NYA workers in Hamlin who will be affected by the wage hour increase, Mr. Baxter pointed out, are the workers giving clerical assistance in the city office and the youths employed in building the rock masonry fence around the city pump station, under the direction of Bill Rountree and Jesse C. Petty.

"Build-Up": Way to Ease Women's Pain

Many weak, run-down women are in a vicious circle. Their under-nourishment often leads to what is called functional dysmenorrhea and its symptoms—headaches, nervousness, irritability, intermittent cramp-like pains—from which many women suffer. Surest way to break the vicious circle is by building strength and energy, which so many find may be done with the help of CARDUI. It stimulates appetite, aids digestion, and thus helps in this "build-up" of physical resistance. Women also report that, if taken just before and during "the time," CARDUI helps to ease the pain and discomfort of the period.

The World on Display

Sixty-two foreign countries whose magnificent pavilions face the Lagoon of Nations and the Coliseum will be open throughout the Fair for free inspection. Here the treasures of Europe, Asia, Africa, Australia and South America will be shown.

A list of the free wonders of the Exhibit Area would fill columns. Some of the highlights are:

The Railroad Building, center of 6-acre exhibit, containing the most complete miniature railroad ever constructed; a thriving American homestead, complete with cattle, sheep, and chickens, with a singing fountain at the entrance; the most valuable wheat field in the world; 135-foot schooner in New England exhibit; the model Town of Tomorrow containing completely furnished homes; The Children's World, a fantastic miniature fair by itself; the House of Jewels where more than $5,000,000 worth of gems will sparkle.

All this and vastly more, may be seen—free of charge.
